

Having trouble viewing this email? Click here

What does the American Airlines/US Airways merger mean for your airport?

Our conference offers you a timely opportunity to meet with planners from the new American, as well as Delta, with additional airlines anticipated. Join Mead & Hunt at the third annual Air Service Development Conference in Daytona Beach, Florida. The conference includes sessions with aviation experts, meetings with airline planners and industry updates, including what to expect from the AA/US merger. Don't wait to meet with these airlines; join us in January in Daytona Beach!

Where

The Shores | Daytona Beach Shores, Florida

Book your accommodations at the special conference rate ($139/night plus fees and tax) here. Enter the Group Code MEAHUN.

When

Tuesday evening, January 21, through noon on Thursday, January 23, 2014

Who

Planners from two of the world's largest airlines, American Airlines and Delta Air Lines, are scheduled to attend with other carriers anticipated. In addition, Bombardier will also present on the next generation of aircraft and where the industry is headed from a manufacturer's perspective.

How

Click the link below to register and book your accommodations. Space is limited; the early bird registration fee of $695 expires after December 31, so don't miss out!

We hope you can make it to the conference. If you have any questions, contact your air service consultant or reply to this e-mail.

Register Now!

Book accommodations
(Group Code: MEAHUN)

